

Ed Dowd: The COVID Vax Is “The Greatest Fraud I’ve Ever Seen in My Life”

“We won’t be talking about this for the next ten years. We’ll be talking about this for the next two centuries. This is going to impact everybody throughout the globe for years to come,” asserted Ed Dowd during an interview with Greg Hunter (USA Watchdog).

Ed Dowd is a former Blackrock asset manager who used his number-crunching skills to expose the alarming rise in excess mortality across the globe, which was tightly correlated with the COVID vaccine rollout and COVID vaccine mandates. He boldly asserted in March of 2022, “This is what we call democide, death by government.”

Hunter asked Dowd, “They're just acting like we don't have an unfolding disaster. Does that scare you?”

“Yeah, the silence is deafening,” answered Dowd. “That's why this data we put out on the UK disability system deserves an answer. Their silence will tell you all you need to know. Because it's either systemic fraud, and they should cut us a check for $5 million consulting fee for discovering this fraud and saving them billions. Or it's not, and they're covering it up. Or they're dumb, and they have billion-dollar budgets, and they can't figure this out on their own.”

“They're either dumb, covering it up, or they're systemic fraud,” he continued. “And either way, this is going to become too big to hide. Congress needs to act. These people in the GOP are forming all these committees on January 6 and all these other things. Great. Good on you. How about the COVID vaccine committee? Call me up. I'll share my numbers.”

“Disaster,” remarked Hunter. “Unbelievable. Just unmitigated. The world's never seen this before. The world's never seen this before!”

“No,” agreed Dowd. “Look, this, to me, is unprecedented. It's the greatest fraud I've ever seen in my life. I know how frauds work. I was on Wall Street. I know the psychology of the fraudmen. I know what they do. I know the psychology of people who believe the fraud. And I've seen this happen with the COVID vaccines. The true believers defending all the way down. And it's a disaster. And I think — we won't be talking about this for the next ten years. We'll be talking about this for the next two centuries. This is going to impact everybody throughout the globe for years to come.”

How about EVERY family who lost a loved one and/or now suffer themselves from the vax tell their story in a video. We amass them on one site. The next WEF, UN, Davos etc meeting everyone gets locked down (for their safety of course) and they don't leave until they watch the millions of heartbreaking stories from around the globe...which may take a year. And BTW they don't actually leave in the end...they are led to a world tribunal. Sentencing is decided by voting by the people across the globe on a block chain app that can't be censored, like Bastyon. Justice 2023 style.

Yes...agreed. But that isn't the point. The point is to 1) lock them down to listen to each and every story ...which 2) let's them feel the pain of lockdown over extended period of time 3) This lack of freedom along with the stories, even though they very likely won't be moved by them, at least they will hear the anger and see the eyes of the millions of pissed off people, which they need to see 3) then force march them into court 4) Be sentenced for their crimes...not by a rigged jury, lawyer & judge puppets but by the world court of people.

Both Greg Hunter and Ed Dowd are still running cover for Trump. Dowd says that Trump is just too proud to admit he was wrong. Hunter's position is that Trump's contract with Pfizer is his get-out-of-jail-free card because it required Pfizer to produce a safe and effective vaccine.

So why isn't Trump calling Pfizer out on the fact that they did not produce a safe and effective vaccine? Greg Hunter conveniently ignores this. But not only is Trump not calling them out on it, he is still singing its praises, telling the world as recently as last week that it has saved millions and millions of lives and bragging about how quickly he was able to get it distributed.

Meanwhile, Greg Hunter continues to support Trump and says that all will be well if Trump eventually admits he was fooled by Fauci and Pfizer. Ridiculous...

Assume Trump Biden Obama Fauci Clinton Trudeau etc. all drop dead tomorrow. There's an infinite array of greedy narcissists that will immediately step up to enforce the narrative and present themselves to the public as your "leaders". But where do they get their marching orders from? Ah. If people stay at the middle management office political level, they never reveal who or what is setting the agenda.

Also, Greg Hunter actively deletes comments on his sites that are critical of Trump's unwillingness to come out against the jab. And if someone makes several attempts to criticize Trump on this issue, he blocks them altogether. And then he has the nerve to complain about censorship.

Give me a break. He allowed for the process to work without regulatory interference. It's on the NIH, FDA, and the scientific community to develop a safe and effective product. They didn't. They committed fraud to push the gene therapy to market. You are blaming Trump for their illegal actions?

Severe TDS if you ask me.

The only thing he's guilty of is continuing to support them. He needs to admit they are an absolute failure and should be pulled.

Karen Kingston (I assume you're familiar with her work) has said in interviews that she sat down with Donald Trump Jr to discuss the issues with the bioweapon (aka the vaccine). She also said that she gave Donald Trump Jr supporting documentation so that he could share the information with his father. Do you honestly believe that Donald Trump doesn't know that the bioweapon is killing and maiming millions of people? And yet he continues to brag about how quickly he was able to get it produced and distributed and how it has saved millions and millions of lives.

I am very familiar with Karen Kingston and her work from the beginning. She has informed most, if not all, federal and state government officials and law enforcement agency's along with Doctors in the medical freedom movement as well as others. True hero IMHO risking everything including her life by revealing it all.

I personally believe that there is only 4 reasons why real truth and justice is not carried out.

They are being bribed, bullied, blackmailed or they are in on it.

As far as Trump, maybe some or all of the above or he is playing 3D chess or he's playing us.

Just wondering?

♡ LIKE (3) 💬 REPLY (1) ...

Maybe they're all playing 3D chess? They're all on our side and they're all just playing 3D chess?

I wonder why no one ever uses that excuse to explain anyone else's behavior except Trump's. Perhaps Joe Biden is just pretending to be a moron? But he's actually working in our interests? Just playing dumb and pretending to do dumb things? But ultimately everything he's doing is for our own good? Does that make any sense to anyone?

Why is the whole 3D chess thing a valid excuse for anything Trump does that appears to go against the interests of the American people?

No, I'm gonna have to go with Ed Dowd on this one. Trump is either a complete moron, or he's covering it up (and gaslighting us by continuing to pretend that the bioweapon is a miracle which has saved "millions and millions" of lives). Do you think Trump's a moron?

Like I said he's guilty of still saying how great they are and not calling for them to be stopped, but if you think he's the mastermind of the biggest scam the world has ever witnessed that's a level of TDS that's off the charts. Enjoy this chess you seem to like so much.
